

MOST INNOVATIVE PROFESSIONAL COACHING SPECIALIST

New Level Results Ltd

Established in 2014, New Level Results ("NLR") is a professional coaching company helping individuals and organisations from all walks of life with business, team, executive and life coaching. Through bespoke coaching programmes rooted in transformational and measurable results, the coaching team has helped more than 3,000 individuals, leaders and businesses to maximise a clear vision of success. The team's adoption of the NLR methodology is paired with its own innovative software that maps and tracks client progress, covering an array of coaching disciplines that attain the results clients genuinely want.

In order to separate its services from competitors, New Level Results has released its own proprietary software platform – The Curve®. The user-friendly platform can be used on any device, offering exceptional functionality that allows clients to track goals, set reminders and note-take with learning logs, delivering a reflective overview on progress and 12-months goals. Through this tracking, the team of coaches will determine corrective solutions to align with your success pathway, and the software then delves deeper by analysing mindset, values, behaviours, and culture – providing an all-encompassing tool for coaching. Alongside this inventive and innovative platform, the company offers programmes, including business coaching, executive coaching, talent development, coaching maternity/paternity returners, life coaching, team coaching, and expeditions.

The judging panel was particularly impressed by the company's cutting-edge platform, which has transformed the world of coaching, reflected in its impressive client portfolio of more than 500 business leaders. This work has led to significant improvements in local economies, as those clients showed tremendous business growth and overcame major political, technological, and social obstacles. The judges also admired the organisation's continuous appetite for innovative development by responding to regular feedback from users and consistently delivering updated versions of their platform. As cyber-attacks continue to evolve and become more intelligent, New Level Results are dedicated to tackling this problem with leading cyber security packages that set the bar high with its safe, sustainable, and user-friendly platform.
